

School - Parent - Student Compact

East View Elementary School

The school agrees	The parent/guardian agrees	The student agrees
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To conduct an annual meeting for Title 1 parents to inform them of the Title 1 program and their right to be involved. • To actively involve parents in planning, reviewing, and improving the Title 1 programs and the parent involvement policy. • To provide parents with timely information about all programs. • To provide individual student assessment results as well as other pertinent individual and school district education information. • To provide high quality curriculum and instruction. • To promote communication between home and school through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Parent – teacher conferences - Progress reports on child’s progress - Title 1 meetings - Workshops - School Newsletters - Opportunities to volunteer in child’s class - Observe scheduled classroom activities • To assure that parents may participate in professional development activities if the school determines that it is appropriate, i.e., literary classes, and workshops on reading strategies. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To send your child to school well rested, well fed, and ready to learn. • To monitor your child’s attendance at school. • To set aside adequate homework time and monitor homework. • To communicate with your child’s teacher about educational needs. • To share the responsibility for improved student achievement. • To limit TV viewing to quality programs. • To participate in school programs by volunteering and/or attending PTO meetings, Title 1 meetings, concerts/plays, etc. • To read daily to or with your child. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To attend school regularly. • To try hard in school and do one’s best all of the time. • To follow school rules. • To respect one another. • To pay attention in school. • To keep the school clean. • To complete and hand in homework on time. • To take home school mail and deliver it to a parent/guardian.